Philosophy of the program

Doctor of Philosophy Program in Social Development Administration (English Program)

To develop graduates to become an academician, researcher, analyst and policy developer and planner as well as social development administrator while generating new knowledge in the area of social development and administrative strategy.